

Celebrating its 20th anniversary, the University City Sculpture Series program provides sculpture students at Washington University an opportunity to propose and execute temporary projects of their own design. Students work directly with members of the community and gain experience and a better understanding of issues related to public art in public places.

University City Sculpture Series Opening Reception

Sunday, April 9, 2006

Explorations of art and community featuring Washington University sculpture students

On display from April 9 – May 7, 2006

Municipal Commission on Arts & Letters
6801 Delmar Blvd.
University City, MO 63130

Please join us for the opening reception
Sunday, April 9, 2006
2:30 – 3:30 pm
6801 Delmar, City Hall Rotunda
University City

See <http://www.ucitymo.org> for more information, including a list of the artwork locations and artist information.

